PRESS RELEASE

Senior Assistant Secretary La Fleur Quammie receiving dignity kit items from the British High Commission

Kingstown, St. Vincent 21st April 2021,

The High Commission of St. Vincent & the Grenadines in London donates to Gender Affairs dignity kits.

The Ministry of National Mobilisation continues to provide support for women and girls during the current emergency crisis being experienced due to the La Soufriere Volcanic eruption. On April 21st, Senior Assistant Secretary (Ag) La Fleur Quammie received a donation of dignity items from The High Commission of St. Vincent and the Grenadines in London. The High Commission of St. Vincent and the Grenadines in London with support and collaboration from the SVG UK Friendship Trust who were responsible for sourcing the products, donated ninety-two (92) cartons of sanitary napkins to the Gender Affairs Division within the Ministry of National Mobilisation. These items are to be part of a dignity kit to be distributed to women and adolescent girls who have been displaced due to the April 9th explosive eruption of the La Soufriere Volcano.

This donation would ensure that women and girls have access to sexual and reproductive health and services even during this emergency crisis.
